

List of Research Articles published (2024-2025) by Faculty Members & Consultants of IAMC & UHAN, USTM

| Sl.No | Name of the Teacher   | Department     | Topic                                                                                   | Name of Journal                                          |
|-------|-----------------------|----------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------|
| 1.    | Dr. Avijit Das        | Panchakarma    | A case study on management of Manyastambha (Cervical Spondylosis) with Upanaha Swedana  | International Journal of Research and Analytical Reviews |
|       |                       |                | Ayurveda is on the way to open the golden door of Indian tourism through Panchakarma    | International journal for multidisciplinary research     |
| 2.    | Dr Barnali Das        | Kayachikitsa   | Risk Factors of Hypertension- An Ayurvedic Review                                       | Juni Khyat                                               |
| 3.    | Dr Mofida Khatun      | Kayachikitsa   | A Literature Review on Sthaulya as per Ayurveda Classics                                | Juni Khyat                                               |
| 4     | Dr Nivedita Sarmah    | Roganidan      | Inter vertebral Disc Prolapse and spondylosis: An Ayurvedic approach on pathophysiology | Ayurveda Rising (chapter in book)                        |
| 5     | Dr. Nazrul.I.Prodhani | Sharir Rachana | Study of the concept of uterus in Ayurveda with applied aspects                         | International Journal of Advanced Research               |
|       |                       |                | Role of Yoga in women's health                                                          | International journal of Applied Ayurveda Research       |
|       |                       |                | Critical Analysis of the concept of Menstrual blood and Ovum in Ayurveda                | Journal of Emerging Technologies and Innovative Research |

|    |                     |              |                                                                                                                   |                                                                               |
|----|---------------------|--------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|    |                     |              | Evaluation of Male reproductive component in Ayurveda with its applied aspect                                     | IJRAPS International Journal of Research in AYUSH and pharmaceutical Science. |
|    |                     |              | A review study on Agnikarma and Kshar karma in management of Garbhasaya Griva Mukha Gata Vrana (Cervical Erosion) | WJARR World Journal of Advanced research and review                           |
|    |                     |              | Ayurvedic perspective of Karnini Yoni Vyapad                                                                      | IJIRT International Journal of innovative research in technology              |
|    |                     |              | Anorectal Anatomy in Ayurveda and its Applied Aspect                                                              | JAHM Journal of Ayurveda and holistic Medicine                                |
|    |                     |              | Literary Study of Hriday in Ayurveda with its clinical importance                                                 | WJPPR World journal of Advanced Research and review.                          |
|    |                     |              | Literary Analysis of Neuroanatomy in Ayurveda                                                                     | IJFMR International journal for multidisciplinary research.                   |
| 6. | Dr Dilip Kr Goswami | Agada Tantra | Management of Obstructed Labour : A review of the concept of Susruta Samhita                                      | International Journal of Current Research                                     |
|    |                     |              | Medicinal Excellence of Water for Life                                                                            | Journal of Research in Indian Medicine                                        |

|     |                       |                              |                                                                                                      |                                                                         |
|-----|-----------------------|------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|     |                       |                              | A Memorable Experience of Treating a Peculiar Patient with Ayurvedic Medicine                        | Journal of Novel Research and Innovative Development                    |
|     |                       |                              | Sources of Exposure to Visha: An Ayurvedic Perspective and Contemporary Relevance                    | International Journal of Recent Scientific Research                     |
|     |                       |                              | “Sadvritha” (Good Conducts) As Per Charaka : The Key of Personal and Social Health                   | IFR Journal of Arts, Education and Law                                  |
|     |                       |                              | A literary Review of the Agada Concept of Charaka Samhita                                            | Scienxt Journal of Omniscience Multidisciplinary                        |
|     |                       |                              | Agada Concept of Susruta : A Review Study                                                            | GRADIVA REVIEW JOURNAL                                                  |
| 7.  | Dr. Parikshit Debnath | Swathavritta and Yoga        | Impact of COVID-19 Pandemic on Feto-maternal Outcome: A Single Center Based study from Central India | Annals of medicine and medical science.                                 |
| 8.  | Dr. Sujata Banik      | Kaumarbhritya                | A Clinical case study on Dyhidrotic eczema (Pompholyx) w.s.r to Vicharchika                          | International journal of research in AYUSH and Pharmaceutical Sciences. |
| 9.  | Dr Chinmayee Thakuria | Swasthavritta & Yoga         | A Clinical case study on Dyhidrotic eczema (Pompholyx) w.s.r to Vicharchika                          | International journal of research in AYUSH and Pharmaceutical Sciences. |
| 10. | Dr. Chandrama Kalita  | Samhita Siddhanta & Sanskrit | A study on effectiveness of Bhringarajasava in                                                       | Indian journal of research.                                             |

|    |                   |                             |                                                                              |                                                          |
|----|-------------------|-----------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------|
|    |                   |                             | non alcoholic fatty liver disease (NAFLD)                                    |                                                          |
|    |                   |                             | Prospects of krimighna mahakashaya in Ayurveda for Antimicrobial Resistance. | World Journal of pharmaceutical Research.                |
| 11 | Dr. Rezvi Sultana | Samhita Siddhant & Sanskrit | Yoga & Holistic Health                                                       | International journal of Research and Analytical Reviews |